SUMMARY

This report details the traffic implications of proposed 'No Parking – Australia Post Vehicles Excepted' Zone in Bradfield Parade, Cherrybrook, at the front of Cherrybrook Metro Station.

---

SUBJECT

Council has received requests from Australia Post to provide regulatory signs to accommodate the installation of a street posting box at the front of Cherrybrook Metro Station. The area is currently signposted as 'No Parking'. The use of dedicated 'Mail Zone' was considered however this would prevent commuters from stopping at the location when dropping off or picking up passengers. Australia Post is satisfied that the proposed 'No Parking – Australia Post Vehicles Excepted' will meet their operational requirements.

The following signs are proposed:

1. Installation of two 'No parking, Australia Post Vehicles Excepted' signs (6 metre zone) within the existing no parking and loading area on Bradfield Parade.

Plan of the proposal is attached.

CONSULTATION

Australia Post has consulted with Sydney Metro who support the proposal. The new zone will not displace any parking and the public will continue to use the zone as pick up and drop off space when the area is not used by Australia Post vehicles. Further public consultation is considered not necessary.

RECOMMENDATION THAT

1. 'No Parking, Australia Post Vehicles Excepted' Zone be installed in Bradfield Parade, Cherrybrook, as per plan LTC 34/2020.
