

Recovered commodities are sold to manufacturers for reuse in new products (TV, IT and other products)

IT & TV products are manufactured overseas

IT & TV products are imported into Australia

Import declarations are lodged with Australian Customs, recording IT & TV imports, which determine the importers' liability under the National Television and

IT & TV products are distributed for sale to businesses or consumers

Computer Recycling

Scheme (NTCRS)

Government advise importers of their liability & that under the NTCRS they must join a Co-regulatory Arrangement (CA)

FROM CRADLE

TO CRADLE

Importer joins or renews membership of a CA such as

TechCollect

Recovered materials are used in Australia or shipped overseas for further processing

www.techcollect.nz

LEADED

GLASS

GLASS

At least of raw materials are recovered

STEEL

MIXED

METALS

CIRCUIT

BOARDS

TechCollect's

logistics provider

IT & TV products purchased or leased by consumers and businesses

Importer funds TechCollect program

E-waste is manually disassembled and sorted

All e-waste is transported to TechCollect's approved recyclers

EOL IT & TV products (e-waste) are dropped off at a free TechCollect service

IT & TV

products reach their end-of-life

IT & TV products are used and then resold or donated to be re-used. (30-40% of working IT is shipped/ re-marketed overseas)

