

Floating Landcare – Activity Summary 2019

Site Name:	Berowra Creek Camp
Location:	Crosslands, Berowra Creek and Calna Creek	LGA:	Hornsby
Date of activity:	23 to 24/03/2019	Hectares treated:	0.51
Floating Landcare Program Partners:	Bec Mooy (GSLLS), Tegan Burton / Andrew Duffy (NPWS), Donna Fitton	Number of Volunteers participated:	26

Summary of on ground works Please see summary map and photo captions for details of the activities of the Floating Landcare camp.

Map of locations identified as priority for the volunteers participating in the Floating Landcare camp. Photo Bec Mooy (GSLLS)

Day 1. Volunteers work on removing buffalo grass from the saltmarsh beside the camp site on Berowra Creek, Crosslands. Photo Bec Mooy (GSLLS)

Day 1. Volunteers paddle to Calna Creek and work on Cassia and Caster Oil plants on the riverbank. Photo Bec Mooy (GSLLS)

Day 1. Volunteers paddle back to the Crosslands Camp site after a fulfilling day of bush regeneration. Photo Bec Mooy (GSLLS)

Day 1. Hooked on Nature gives the volunteers a talk on some of the native animals of the Mangrove and saltmarsh communities. Photo Bec Mooy (GSLLS)

Day 1. Hooked on Nature explains the importance of the invertebrates of the mangroves and saltmarsh and takes the volunteers on a nocturnal walk. Photo Bec Mooy (GSLLS)

Day 2. Jeff from Willow Warriors walks along the edge of Calna Creek removing and treating cassia stands, special thanks to Jeff and team for organising the canoes for the weekend and for being our expert river guides. Photo Bec Mooy (GSLLS)

Floating Landcare 2-day camp volunteers ready to head home after a big two days of weeding, paddling, and learning, plenty of good food (Thanks to Tegan and Sheen) and as always great company. Photo Bec Mooy (GSLLS)

